

Soil Sensor

A valuable tool that delivers data on two critical levels: soil moisture and soil temperature. This information is instrumental in enabling precise irrigation and fertigation practices for crops.

